Why our tour was such a success

● JOCK WALLACE

RANGERS extend a warm welcome to the players and officials from Australia who are at Ibrox for tonight's match ... and to all those back home "Down Under" who helped make the club's World Tour such a resounding success during the summer.

Manager Jock Wallace says: "We are grateful to all our Australian friends for the tremendous courtesy and hospitality we received during our stay in Australia.

"I'm looking forward to renewing old acquaintances - although we have a score to settle for the 3-2 defeat by Australia back in June.

"The tour did wonders for the morale and team spirit within the club and I feel it was nonsense for people to say we were jinxed because of the injuries we suffered in Australia. BELIEVE ME, THERE WAS MORE GOOD THAN BAD CAME FROM OUR MONTH TOGETHER.

"It is a particular privilege for me to welcome back Aussie coach Eddie Thomson, who I'm sure many fans will remember well from his days at Hearts and Aberdeen.

"It'd great to see Eddie and everyone connected with the Australian side again and I am sure the Ibrox fans will enjoy a great game tonight".

'MITCH' SUNK RANGERS . . .

RANGERS need no reminding that they will have to work hard for a victory over the Aussies at Ibrox tonight. The club's record of two wins, two draws and one defeat against the "Socceroos" during the summer speaks volumes for the quality of the opposition.

The Light Blues started their World Tour with a goal-less draw against Australia B in Melbourne on May 27 before beating the same side 2-1 in Brisbane four days later.

Barely 1,000 fans watched Sandy Clark and Ian Redford give Rangers their first victory of the tour after Charlie Egan - whose dad lives in Kilsyth - had given the Aussies the lead.

Next it was on to Sydney where the 'Gers were sunk by Australia A 3-2 ... with Ibrox striker Davie Mitchell "turning traitor" on his club side.

Big Davie scored once and set up the other goals for his Australian team mates while Ally McCoist scored twice for Rangers.

Glasgow-born Tommy McCulloch was next in the queue to dent the hopes of his hometown team. McCulloch scored for Australia B in Adelaide on June 5 before John McClelland snatched an equaliser.

The final stop for Rangers was New South Wales where the Ibrox men hammered a Newcastle Select (nothing to do with Geordies!) 4-2. The goals came from Craig Paterson, Hugh Burns, Ally McCoist and Davie Cooper (right).

ALLY'S 'JINX' TRIP . . .

● ALLY McCOIST . . . tour hoodoo.

NO prizes for guessing the most feared man on Rangers' World Tour this summer. No, it wasn't any opponent ... just Ally McCoist.

For, by an astonishing quirk of fate, four of the Ibrox casualties on the tour just happened to be room-mates of Ally's!

Victim No.1 was Bobby Russell, who began the trip sharing a room with Ally before landing in hospital with an eye injury.

Victim No.2 was Bobby Williamson, who is still on the mend after suffering a broken leg. Jock Wallace then moved Colin McAdam in with the feared McCoist - and he promptly became Victim No.3 after also suffering a leg break.

Finally, Sandy Clark drew the short straw - and guess what? A few days later Victim No.4 required five stitches inserted in a cut eyebrow.

As Ally joked at the time: "The other players shake even if I sit at the same table as them. They must think I stick pins in voodoo dolls wearing Rangers' jerseys!"

Well, it certainly was a novel way of making sure of getting a game!

A touch of Blue does it.

● MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS ... David Mitchell with a scrapbook containing cuttings of his days in Australia.

JOCK PUTS DAVIE RIGHT ...

DAVIE Mitchell, the man known affectionately as the "Light Blue Soccerroo", has a message for his Australian pals ... "Sorry, lads, I must fancy Rangers to beat you!"

Tonight's match will complete a peculiar five months for the 22 year old Ibrox striker, who played for Australia against Rangers in June and now finds himself playing for the Light Blues against his international team mates!

Yet only a month ago Davie - who moved "Down Under" when he was six and became a naturalised Australian - wasn't sure which side he would be on tonight.

He explained: "When I knew Australia were coming here on tour I went to see the gaffer to find out where I stood. At the time I didn't figure in the first team plans, so the boss hinted I might be allowed to join up with the Australian squad for a short spell.

"AFTER ALL, I AM AN AUSTRALIAN INTERNATIONAL AND WOULD NATURALLY LOVE TO BE INVOLVED IN THE WORLD CUP - ESPECIALLY AS THERE IS AN OUTSIDE CHANCE WE COULD END UP FACING SCOTLAND IN A PLAY-OFF FOR MEXICO."

However, Jock Wallace was quick to put big Davie in the picture over his present position. Says Jock: "He is a Ranger - he plays for us."

So even although he cannot play for his country, at least the lanky striker knows he is very much in Wallace's plans these days.

He adds: "Since I bought out my contract with Sydney City 14 months ago I've known some ups and downs. It was a bit of a gamble spending my own money to come back to Glasgow as a trialist with Rangers, but I haven't regretted it for a minute.

"I think I hit Ibrox with a bang when John Greig signed me, but it's been difficult getting an extended run in the first team. Obviously the competition is hot and I think I can prove myself as good as any striker at Ibrox."

Davie certainly created a huge impression during the summer when he scored a goal and created two as a member of the Aussie side which beat Rangers 3-2.

However, he probably wasn't "flavour of the month" with Ibrox team mate Colin McAdam who broke a leg after a clash with Mitchell.

"THAT WASN'T MY FAULT - AND I HAVE THE VIDEO AT HOME TO PROVE IT" chuckled Davie.

"Anyway, there were no hard feelings and the first thing I did the following day was to visit Colin in hospital and give him a box of chocolates as a peace offering!"

Meanwhile, there is no mistaking which side Davie is on tonight and he added: "I have to tip a Rangers' victory. Australia are certainly better than New Zealand, who were here last month, and there are some terrific players like the captain John Kosmina, Oscar Crino and Steve O'Connor.

"I know they beat Manchester City 3-1 last Wednesday, but, even so, it's Rangers for me."

Colin wins his fitness battle

THE appearance of Australia at Ibrox tonight is sure to provoke bitter-sweet memories for two players in particular – Colin McAdam and Bobby Williamson.

While the rest of their team-mates were savouring the sights such as the Bondi Beach and the Sydney Opera House, Colin and Bobby had only the four walls of a hospital ward to look at.

That was in the summer when the club's World Tour turned into a personal nightmare for both players. First Bobby broke his leg after an accident, then Colin suffered the same fate after an on-field clash with Ibrox colleague Davie Mitchell, who was playing for Australia.

However, the good news is that big Colin has won his fitness fight and made a tentative return for the final minute of the reserve game against Hibs last weekend.

Bobby, meanwhile, will have to wait a little longer for his eagerly awaited comeback after the removal of the metal plate in his leg.

Says Colin, whose catalogue of injuries includes two broken legs, a dislocated ankle and broken ribs: "The hardest bit was running up and down the hills at Bellahouston Park but I'm back to full fitness now".

Hopefully 23 year old Bobby will not be far behind his team-mate on the road to recovery. The striker could have played with the plate still in his leg but opted to sort out the problem once and for all.

"I'm hoping to be back sometime in December" he says. "But with so many good strikers at Ibrox these days I'm going to have my work cut out getting back into the team."

"It's a pity because I was looking forward to this season. It took a bit of time to adapt to full-time training and playing at a higher level and I reckoned I would be better prepared this season."

● FLASHBACK... Colin with his sons, Kenneth (right) and Ross, just a few days after he returned from Australia with his broken leg in plaster.

BEST WISHES

★ Big Peter McCloy might prefer to keep this quiet... but he will have 38 candles to blow out on his birthday on November 26.

Peter continues to confound the critics with his youthful enthusiasm and burning ambition at a time when most players have called it a day.

This season has already been successful for him – he collected another Skol Cup winners' medal last month by way of celebrating his 21st season in senior football.

Best wishes Peter – and here's to a few more to celebrate at Ibrox.

YOU CAN WIN £50

★ One fan will leave the stadium £50 richer after this evening's match.

That's the prize he or she will collect if they have the lucky programme number which is selected and which will be announced over the loudspeaker and displayed on a board which will be carried round the track at half time.

Check your number on the back page and if you have the lucky programme, then simply call round to the front door after the game and you will be given the £50 prize.

10 YEARS AGO

Rangers were dealt a double blow in this week in 1974. A defeat by Hibs enabled Celtic to step over the Ibrox side as Division One leaders and Derek Johnstone suffered a knee injury which was to keep him out for several weeks.

A crowd of 30,000 at Ibrox saw the former Aberdeen idol, Joe Harper, score the only goal of the game in the 75th minute to give Hibs a 1-0 victory.

That meant Celtic moved to the top of the league... by one goal. Both Rangers and Celtic were locked on 22 points from 13 games but the Parkhead side's goal difference of 36-11 just edged out the 'Gers on 35-11.

For the record books, the Rangers team that day against Hibs was: Kennedy, Jardine, Greig, Johnstone, Jackson, Forsyth, McKean, McLean, Parlane, MacDonald, Young.

The Division One table looked like this:

	P	W	D	L	F	A	W	D	L	F	A	Pt

Golfer Gary Player won the 100th tournament of his distinguished career with a closing round of 70, which gave him a total of 280 and victory in the International Classic at Port Elizabeth in his native South Africa.

Scotland's football punters were still in mourning over the midweek 2-1 defeat by Spain at Hampden Park, which wrecked Scots' hopes of reaching the European Championship finals.

Top of the Pops, for the second successive week, were Freddie Mercury and the lads from Queen with Killer Queen.

An automatic washing machine cost £98.95, a dishwasher was £72.95 and a fridge cost £64.95.

Whisky was £2.45 and vodka £2.39 a bottle, while a "chaser" of a dozen cans of lager cost £1.65.

20 YEARS AGO

Jim Forrest chopped Motherwell down to size with a match-winning goal 30 seconds from the end of a disappointing match at Ibrox.

● DISGUSTED... that's Stewart Kennedy, Rangers' goalkeeper, after Joe Harper has just netted Hibs' goal at Ibrox ten years ago. John Greig and Sandy Jardine are the other shocked Light Blues' stars.

A crowd of 33,000 witnessed that narrow 1-0 victory, which lifted Rangers into sixth place in the table, seven points behind leaders Kilmarnock.

The Rangers team was: Ritchie, Provan, Hynd; Greig, McKinnon, Wood; Wilson, Millar, Forrest, Baxter, Johnston.

The First Division table looked like this:

In England, Manchester United shared top spot with Chelsea in the First Division, while the other divisional leaders were Northampton, Grimsby and Tranmere.

Some of the top club acts around Glasgow at the time were the Nashville Teens and Georgie Fame, while Diana Ross was exercising her vocal chords with the Supremes at number one with Baby Love. Winner of the Worst Titled Song of 1964 must go to Wayne Fontana with the brilliantly original Um,Um,Um,Um,Um.

30 YEARS AGO

You could have your chimney swept for 10½d while housewives were up in arms about a 6d in the lb increase in meat. Mince for 5/- a lb... outrageous!

An 86th minute equaliser by Willie Gardiner earned Rangers a point against Clyde in front of a 32,000 crowd at Shawfield.

The team which kept the Light Blues in fourth place in Division A was: Brown; Little, Cox; McColl, Young, Rae; McCulloch, Paton, Gardiner, Simpson, Waddell.

Shawfield, in fact, was the football ground in the news in 1954 - the Glasgow ground staged one of Scotland's first matches under floodlights that same week when Sunderland supplied the opposition.

Heart-throb Victor Mature starred in Demetrius and the Gladiator at La Scala while a television set cost 56 guineas and a Collier suit just £8.
